Eunice was born to George C. Lokken and Judith Elizabeth Lyngstad Lokken on April 14, 1925 in Irene, SD. She attended six grades of elementary school in Irene. She then completed her school years in Madison, WI and graduated from East HS in that city in 1943. She remained at home after completing HS and took care of her mother who was quite ill. Her marriage to James Hartline took place in December of 1945 and she continued to look after her mother until her mother died in 1958. Eunice had a passion for softball and played on various teams in the Madison area. One of the teams, on which she played, won the State Soft Ball Championship. At one time she formed her own soft ball team. She finally gave up the sport around 1955. She loves music, the theater and opera.

She resides with her daughter and husband, Robert Babb, in Bakersfield, CA. Eunice had a minor heart problem in 1992 but now remains an active and intelligent 70 year old grandmother for her one grandchild, Robert Frederick Babb.
